Evie's Magic Bracelet: The Silver Unicorn

by Jessica Ennis-Hill

Ed's Poetry

Towards the end of this story, when Evie was wondering if Grandma Iris' gift was broken, she remembers this poem. Using this as a model write one or two more verses using the same rhythm and rhyming scheme.

All that glitters isn't gold,
Uncover magic, be brave, be bold.
Its power wanes on the third day.
Bark! Woof! Howl! What will you say?

When you have finished your poem you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

Ed would enjoy reading your poem. You could email your poem to him.

Magic spells

Magic spells consist of a special word or words that make something happen, like turning a frog into a prince or a prince into a frog. However they only work in stories, not in real life - unless you are really lucky! The most famous spell is probably abracadabra. Make up some magic spells of your own.

Look at the illustrations in this book then do an illustration for your favourite part of the story. Decide whether to do it in black and white or in colour.
