Ed's Poetry

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake is a very old rhyme that can be used for a clapping game, but some of the rhymes are missing. Complete it with the words at the end. The 1st and 2nd lines should rhyme and also the 3rd and 4th lines.

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, baker's _____ .

Bake me a cake as fast as you _____ .

Pat it and shape it and mark with a _____ ,

And bake in the oven for baby and _____ .

Pat-a-cake, pat-a-cake, baker's _____ .

Bake me a cake as fast as you _____ .

Roll it and roll it then mark with a _____ ,

And there'll be enough for Tommy and _____ .

'T' me can man can me man 'B'

When you have finished this rhyme you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

The Twitches Bake a Cake

by Hayley Scott

Stevie and her mum were making a cake for their moving-in party. If you were making a cake, perhaps for your birthday, what would you make? What would you choose if you could have any shape cake? When you have made your choice, draw a picture of your favourite cake.
